SUPERVISION

I supervise across various areas of linguistic and literary analysis (Stylistics, Poetics, Discourse Analysis). Supervised and successfully defended bachelor and master projects include:

- Award-winning picture books: a multimodal analysis (MA)
- ASD mindstyle in three contemporary novels (MA)
- Stylistic representation of Self and Other in postcolonial literature (MA)
- Deixis in song lyrics (BA)
- Difficulty of award-winning poems (BA)
- Gaps as stylistic devices in Joyce's Dubliners (BA)
- Metaphors in popular science literature (BA)
- Representation of gender in break-up scenes from movies (BA)
- Stylistic evolution in love sonnets from 19th to 21st century (BA)
- Stylistic representation of women in poetry (BA)

Although regrettably I have no direct experience in supervising PhD theses, I have experience that can be considered equivalent: my acting as a mentor for a post-doctoral project (2024-ongoing) and as an external examiner for a doctoral candidate at a UK institution (2018); as well as my peer-reviewing activity for international journals (see previous CV section for details).
